

A Nation that Protects
CHILDREN and TEENS
against all forms of abuse.

Guidelines

- Children and adolescents are beings in process of development and as such are entitled to comprehensive protection in situations that put at risk and affect their physical and psychological integrity.
- Sexual exploitation of children and adolescents is a crime punishable by law and the penalty reaches not only the exploiter but the middleperson.
- Costa Rica as a country that respects and protects its children and adolescents.
- All responsible and sustainable tourism Management should protect the rights and the optimum development of the children and the adolescents.

REPORT IT: 911 or 2295-3554
It is your obligation to protect them.

